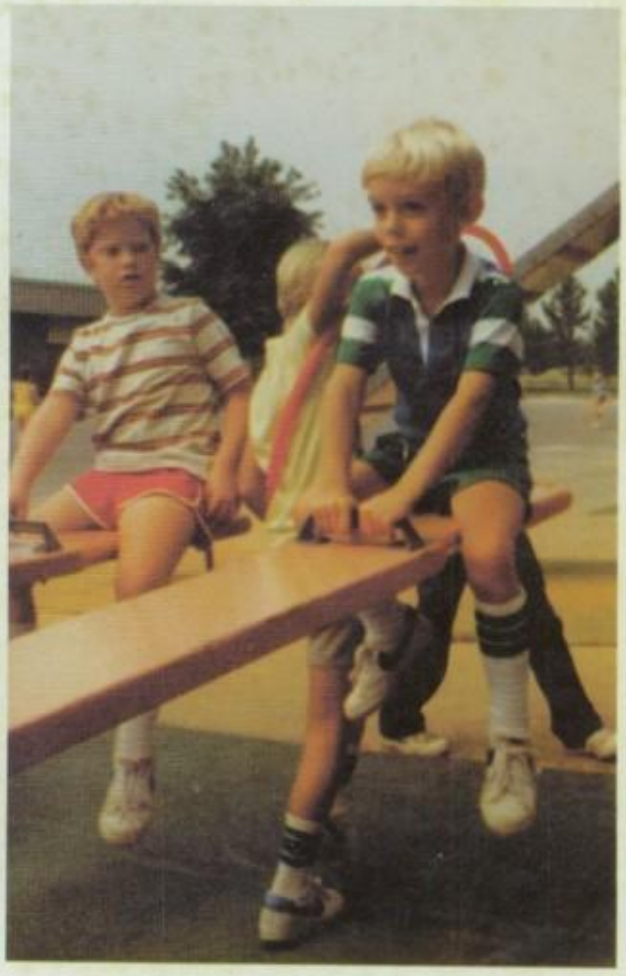
Gaston Day School
Gastonia, North Carolina
Circa 80, Volume II
1981



Ramon Lewis Nusser
1920-1980

The 1981 Gaston Day School Circa '80 is dedicated to the memory of a man whose smile brightened each students day, a man whose class was a welcome relief from the hectic school day, a man whose genuine concern for and understanding of each student were apparent. Mr. Ramon L. Nusser was all of this and more.

From 1972-1980 Mr. Nusser was a vital member of Gaston Day's faculty. He was not only interested in history and American Government, but was constantly studying and thinking of what the future could bring. With his ability to reach the spects of government and history which he understood and enjoyed so much, Mr. Nusser inspired interest and the desire to learn through thought-provoking discussions.

The Circa 80 Staff wishes to remember Mr. Nusser for his genuine concern for all students, for his loyalty to Gaston Day School, and for making the hard road of the high school years easier for all.

Last Will And Testament

I, Ron Anderson, being of fried mind and wasted body simply leave my economics book to Mr. Kenyon, because it's the only thing that I received at GDS that I didn't want.

I, Chip Craig leave my sister my basketball ability. To Bill C. I leave a chew at lunch and my ability not to get caught at the things I do. To James M. I leave someone to help him during a game.

I, Marianna Eaddy, being of lost mind and a body following so far behind due hereby leave the following: to Beth Morgan my rusty, but trusty means of transportation (and with the official Gas-Guzzlers Club card). To Mandy Brown my abilities to act like you know whats going on when actually you don't even know where you are. This also includes an added feature, your own place in space. To my brother Hunter I leave all my books complete with drawings and improvements. To any junior taking advanced biology next year I leave 3 flies, 2 mosquitoes, 5 grasshoppers, and my killing jar (you'll have to get your own net.) To Mrs. Kilpatrick I leaved all my mispelled words and bad English to be used as an example to future students (If I leave them here maybe they won't follow me to college).

I, Regina Eliege, being of slight mind and chunky body do hereby leave to Munchkin anything that I have worthwhile to leave. To Mary Catherine all the headaches of being a senior and to Kelly Duncan I leave the 440 and to Jody Phillips, the hurdles.

I, Lynne Fraley being of no mind and a while lotta body do hereby leave to the following. To the #1 Plonk "BRO" "Wasted days and wasted nights," to my sister Sandy I leave my ability to get convenient headaches so I can skip tests and go home, and to GDS I leave!!

I, Millie Giles being of no mind and all body do hereby bequeath the following: to Barbara A. my thigh muscles and our many days with AC/DC, to Lisa Elmore I leave Todd D., to Charlotte S. my bug collection and my love for cheerleading (cause she needs it!) and to Grady Smith and Gaston B. I leave my ability to mooch money off of people and all of my love to both of them.

I, Dean Goodwin leave the following: to Charles Decker my hands (for any use), my locker to John Thompsen, my love for Mrs. Moss to the junior class, and my Frank Zappa collection to Paulette Kurani.

I, Scott Hicklin, being of superb mind and body, do hereby leave the following: my car to Craig Watson, my physics book to anyone who'll take it, and my best wishes for the class of '82.

I, Ann Hodges, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Lucy Doster, my skill in running a transit service during a volleyball season, to Shannon Stowe, her own copy of the Miss Piggy dictionary and to Laura Stewart, my Friday night "dates" with Jay Corner.

I, Carla Howie, being of sound mind and body, to hereby bequeath my "Verre" to Charlotte, to Marla I leave the ability to get out of study hall, to Mary Catherine my alligators and love of Rivieras, and to all the Juniors the happy memories of my senior year.

I, Lou Ann Huey, being of somewhat sound mind and body, leave my ability to try to learn to play basketball in one year to anyone stupid enough to start playing their SENIOR year! Also I leave my calf muscles to Barb Allwess (Since Millie left Barb her thigh muscles, the kid will have an entire leg!) I also leave to Barbara my love for old faithful Cutlasses, but I take my "Quaiude" with me because it took me long enough to get it!

I, Paul R. Jones III, do hereby bequeath the following: my height to Tres Abernathy and Bubba Doster, my shares of Revco to Eddie Goertner, and the "Hobo's" dynasty to the Jr. Class.

I, Joey Karzenstein, being of sound mind and body, after careful and long thought do hereby leave the following items: to Meaveen Schultz I leave respect and a friendship that I hope will last a long long time, to Sloan Massey I leave my uncanny ability to charge on Dad's card without him knowing about it or even giving it to me, to Mary Catherine I leave a large pitcher of Sangria with nothing but the stems of the cherries left.

I, Shimples Kimbrell, being of sound mind and body, hereby leave the following: to Mandy Brown my Miss Piggy nose, to Mary C. Andrews my seat at the grill for lunch, to Sue Husvar my pony-tail ribbons and to Shannon Stowe my advice to go off to prep school.

I, Kare McCloskey being of unusual mind and questionable body do hereby bequeath: To Laura Stewart, Fred Moss, and Jim Deason the privilege of having your mother hear you being summoned to the office "on the horn." To Grady Smith my spot as caboose in a long train of family at G.D.S. Last, but not least to Carl Plonk I leave the J.B. song "Survive" because I'll be playing it at college.

I, Mary Elizabeth McPhail, being of slightly crazy mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: my remarkable ability to be three places at the same time to anyone who has the stamina, my job as president to anyone who can give a good speech at graduation, my listening ear to M.C. Andrews, and I'm taking the rest with me!

I, Doug Meyer-Cuno, being of a more or less mind and a short body, do hereby bequeath the following: to Gary R., the privilege of driving my sister to school every day. To Ray K., the ability to sit anywhere in study hall. I also leave my worn-out calculator to anyone who takes Pre-Cal and Physics.

I, Angela Mitchell, being of burnt out mind and "there, but where" body, do hereby bestow the following: To Gwen Huggins I leave my ability to "B.S." my way out of any given situation; to Sandy F. and Marla R. I leave mine and Karin's skill of leaving for lunch without being seen, and returning not being able to see; to Mandy B. I leave my close-up poster of Robert Plant along with all my worn-out Led Zeppelin tapes; to my "bestest" friend "KO" I leave with all our unforgettable memories which will follow us all the way to "USC"! Last but surely least I leave nothing to Gaston Day, but I do hereby leave.

I, Lee Neill, being of overworked mind and tall body, hereby bestow the following: to Mary C. I leave my various "used" cars; to Gary Rothenberg I bestow my ability to speed without getting caught; I bestow my football ability to anyone who wants it; and lastly I leave G.D.S. with all its rules and regulations.

I, Todd Nixon leave Gaston Bates my ability to call plays precisely and correctly, and to Mike Beeker I leave my knack for slow talking. To Coach Deal I leave my Southerner T-shirt,autographed by Merle Haggard. To James Massey I leave my peace sign and to Bill Carstarphan a pack of Levi Garrett and an autographed picture of Vernon Perry.

I, Karin Olson, being of "dazed and confused" mind and voluptuous body hereby bestow the following: To Mandy B. and Gwen H. I Leave mine and Millie's never ending fight about "whose are bigger." I leave to Eddie G. and Mark Q., mine and Angela's ability to leave for "lunch." To my sister Kirsten, I leave my book entitled "the Battle Against Preppieness" for future reference with high hopes that she will carry on the Olson tradition. To Sandy F. and Marla R. I bestow my long list of excuses and left over notes to get out of school. I leave Mrs. Comer and Mr. Marmion the question "why?" and the statements, "I don't understand" "I'm sooo confused!!" Last, but not least I leave my job at the Hungry Girl to any masochist dumb enough to take it.

I, Jim Phil, being of sound mind and body leave my football helmet, double sessions, and my job at Shoney's to anyone who wants them.

I, Mark Rauchenberger, do hereby leave:

I, Lilla Smith, being of absent mind and deprived body, hereby bequeath: to Shannon Stowe the ability to find another doubles partner, to J.M. and B.O. my beach music tapes, to Holly Austin her choice of any Phi Delta Theta at Ga. Tech (excluding relatives), to Grady Smith the honor of being a senior and a Smith at the same time!

I, Fred Spach, being of decadent mind and body, leave my ethics and morals behind.

I, Nancy Whiteside being of scattered brain mind and no body do hereby leave the following: to Lucy Doster the numerous road trips to see "loved ones", to Betty Crazem I leave my 75 m.p.h. speeding ticket since it was your fault that I got anyhow, speace-cadet!, and to any Junior with good taste I leave my collection of Jimmy Buffet albums.

Annual Staff

THIS YEAR'S ANNUAL STAFF IS MOSTLY COMPOSED OF NEW MEMBERS. WITH THE LEADERSHIP OF MARY CATHERINE ANDREWS WHO HAS WORKED THIS YEAR WITHOUT THE AID OF A CO-EDITOR, THE STAFF HAS PUT TOGETHER AN INTERESTING AND UNIQUE YEARBOOK. PAULETTE KURANI HANDLED ALL OF THE ANNUAL'S BUSINESS AFFAIRS, AND MR. WHITE SERVED AS A HELPFUL ADVISOR. WITH THE HOPES OF PRESENTING AN ANNUAL THAT REPRESENTS THE MANY WONDERFUL MEMORIES THAT WE SHARED THIS YEAR THE ANNUAL STAFF HAS PUT IN MANY LONG AND HARD HOURS. WE HOPE THAT YOU WILL TREASURE THIS FOR MANY YEARS TO COME.

Officers: Mary Catherine, Andrews, editor; Mr. White, advisor Paulette Kurani, business manager.

Section Editors: Carla Howie, Barbara Allweiss, Marianna Eaddy, Lou Ann Huey, Joey Katzenstein, Liz McPhail, Laura Stewart.

Photographers: Marla Ransom, Regina Elledge, Meaveen Schultz, Dana Maine.

Beta Club

UNDER THE EFFICIENT LEADERSHIP OF ANN HODGES, THE BETA CLUB HAS PARTICIPATED IN MANY PROJECTS TO HELP THE COMMUNITY. THE CLUB HAS HELPED NEEDY FAMILIES WITH CLOTHES, FOOD AND OTHER GIFTS AND HAS CONTRIBUTED TO THE COMMUNITY THROUGH SEVERAL SERVICE PROJECTS. TO BE A BETA, ONE MUST HAVE AN HONOR-ROLL AVERAGE. MRS. KURANI, THE CLUB'S ADVISOR, HAS HELPED THE CLUB TREMENDOUSLY BY ENCOURAGING THE STUDENTS TO GET INVOLVED.

ANI, EDITOR, CO-EDITOR.

The Gaslight

The Gaslight is the Gaston Day School newspaper written by creative students who wish to improve their writing abilities. This year's paper is different from those of the past in that there are monthly issues. Editor Paulette Kurani, Carla Howie, and Laura Stewart are primarily responsible for the paper's success. The staff has worked hard to produce interesting articles that range from politics to sports and from record reviews to gossip columns. The Gaslight provides the student body with informative literary entertainment.

ION EDITORS: BETH MORGAN, LOWER SCHOOL; JESSICA MILLS, FEATURES; BETTY ORAZEM, RTS.

Officers: Shepard Kimbrell, president; Berry Orazem, vice-president; Charlotte Smith, secretary/treasurer.

The Junior Heart Board

The Junior Heart Board, led by president Shepard Kimbrell is a hard-working organization at GDS. Members are required to work at least 20 hours in order to obrain a pin. The JHB has worked at the mall and the school selling lollipops and balloons. A C.P.R. course is planned for the group in the spring. The group works closely with the other JHB organizations around the community.

Editor's Note

To everyone who made this book possible, one last word of thanks. When I took this job last spring, I really didn't expect all the work and responsibility, but I wouldn't have missed it for anything. Afterall, what is the satisfaction of a completed job without hard work?

The members of the staff know all about hard work. The section editors-Barbara, Joey, LouAnn, Carla, Liz, and Laura-did great jobs on their sections. Regina, do you want to break your camera? You did a fantastic job of taking pictures and getting them developed. And Craig, you did break your camera! (really not on purpose.) Even though, Craig always found a camera and took pictures at the games. Meaveen, you took many good pictures and were ready to do anything you could. Thanks. Paulette, can you believe that we didn't go bankrupt? To our Josten's representative, Mr. Dee Ferrell, you were a constant source of comfort about deadlines and other problems. Mr. White, thank you for being such a interested advisor. Thank you for your helpful advise and genuine concern, Mr. Kenyon. Mom and Dad, a big thank you is definitely in order for you for being so understanding and helpful. Yes Mom, the lay-out sheet, photo-fitters, etc. will soon be out of the house. Friends, y'all have been so sweet and understanding-thanks. Sister Cecilia, you deserve a big thank you for not getting mad when I'm not prepared for my piano lesson because of the annual.

Thank you to the businesses and patrons in the book. In short, thank you to everyone who contributed to this annual.

For Gaston's Day faculty, students, and parents, I hope that we've brought together memories of the year for you. This may not be the best annual produced at Gaston Day, but it has been produced with many hours of hard work on the part of the staff, and all my love.

Mary Catherine A.
